

United States District Court
For the Northern District of California

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN JOSE DIVISION

ZURICH AMERICAN INSURANCE COMPANY,	)	Case No.:12-CV-03777-LHK
	)
Intervenor,	)	ORDER RE: COMPLAINT IN
	)	INTERVENTION
v.	)
	)
HUNTER ENGINEERING COMPANY, and	)
DOES 1 through 40,	)
	)
Defendant.	)
<hr/>
TYRONE CAMPBELL and KIM CAMPBELL,	)
	)
Plaintiffs,	)
v.	)
	)
HUNTER ENGINEERNIG COMPANY, and	)
DOES 1 through 40,	)
	)
Defendants.	)
<hr/>

On June 12, 2012, Plaintiffs Tyrone Campbell and Kim Campbell filed a Complaint in the Superior Court of California, County of Santa Clara against Defendants Hunter Engineering Company and Does 1 through 40, seeking damages for personal injuries involving an alleged incident on July 18, 2011, 112-CV-226352. See ECF No. 1, Notice of Removal from Superior Court, County of Santa Clara (“Notice of Removal”), Ex. A. Specifically, Plaintiffs allege that Plaintiff Tyrone Campbell was injured by a swing-air jack manufactured by Defendant Hunter Engineering. Id. On July 18, 2012, Defendant Hunter Engineering Company filed a Notice of

Case No.: 12-CV-03777-LHK
ORDER RE: COMPLAINT IN INTERVENTION

1 Removal of Action under 28 U.S.C. § 1441(b), initiating the instant action. See Notice of 2 Removal.

3
4 On March 21, 2013, Proposed Intervenor Zurich American Insurance Company (“Zurich
5 American”) filed a “Complaint in Intervention FRCP Rule 25,” in the instant action. ECF No. 26.
6 The Complaint alleges that Zurich American provided workers’ compensation coverage for 7 Plaintiff Tyrone Campbell at the time of the incident, and that it has had to expend substantial sums
8 for disability indemnity and medical benefits paid to Plaintiff, and will be required to expend
9 further sums in the future for workers’ compensation disability indemnity, medical expenses, and
10 other benefits under the workers’ compensation laws of the State of California. Id. ¶¶ 5, 17.
11 Zurich American alleges that it is “entitled to intervene in this action, pursuant to the provisions of 12 [t]he Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 24(a)(2) and Rule 24(b)(1)(B).” Id. ¶ 18.

13 In the same document, Zurich American included a “[Proposed] Order Granting Leave to 14 File Complaint in Intervention FRCP Rule 24.” Id. p. 7. The proposed order states, “Upon reading
15 and considering the foregoing Application for Order Granting Leave to Intervene and the 16 (Proposed) Complaint in Intervention attached thereto, for good cause appearing: IT IS HEREBY
17 ORDERED that ENDURANCE REINSURANCE CORPORATION<sup>1</sup> is granted leave to intervene
18 on this action, and to file aforesaid Complaint in Intervention.” Id. However, Zurich has not filed
19 an “Application for Order Granting Leave to Intervene,” nor has it filed any other motion to 20 intervene to comply with Rule 24’s procedural requirements. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 24(c) (“Notice
21 and Pleading Required. A motion to intervene must be served on the parties as provided in Rule 5.
22 The motion must state the grounds for intervention and be accompanied by a pleading that sets out
23 the claim or defense for which intervention is sought.”).

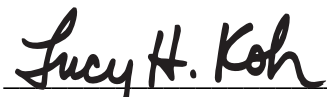

24 If Zurich American seeks to intervene in the instant action, it shall file an appropriate
25 motion after obtaining an available hearing date pursuant to the San Jose Judges’ Standing Order.
26 Prior to filing such a motion, Zurich American must meet and confer with the parties to seek a
27 stipulation to Zurich’s intervention.

28 IT IS SO ORDERED.

---

<sup>1</sup> The relationship of Endurance Reinsurance Company to the instant action, if any, is not clear.
Case No.: 12-CV-03777-LHK
ORDER RE: COMPLAINT IN INTERVENTION

Dated: June 7, 2013

LUCY H. KOH
United States District Judge

United States District Court
For the Northern District of California